FORAKER QUITS

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.-Forme Senator Foraker has quarreled with the Republican executive committee conducting the Ohio campaign and has withdrawn from further participation. The trouble arose over the bitter attacks the former Senator has been making on the New Nationalism policy promulgated by former President Roosevelt. In his stumping of the State, Foraker has been denounce ing Roosevelt, although supporting the State Republican ticket.

His anti-Roosevelt speeches were found to be attracting more attention than his Republicanism, and he was today asked by the executive commit tee to modify his attacks on Roosevelt. Foraker promptly refused to modify his course in any way and announced that if his actions failed to please, he would withdraw from the fight altogether. It was definitely announced tonight that he had withdrawn.
